The Children's Voice

March 2017

Hello Friends,

We thank you all for your prayers; the good news we have for you is that Shadrak Mutebi finally received a new walking style. This was possible because of your deep concern, constant prayers, and kind support. He spent some few months learning how to use his new artificial leg at Corsu Hospital and early this year, after grasping all the techniques of fitting it on and off, he is now at Omega School studying.

Doctors said, as his height will keep on changing, he will need to buy a new artificial leg (possibly 3 times) fitting his height at that particular time. Please keep praying for him.

When our social worker asked him, jokingly, which part of his body he loved the most, he frankly said, "I love my new leg." She then looked into Shadrak's eyes asking him what he wanted to be after school. He confidently, with a big smile said, "I am working hard at school to be a doctor because me and my grandmother have witnessed a miracle which God performed through my sponsors and I hope I will also be in a position to fix another life too."

Shadrak was rejected by his late biological father because of his disability and he stays with his grandmother, Rose Munaku in a rented room in the suburbs of Buwenge. Rose says, "Immediately after my daughter gave birth to Shadrak, her relationship with her husband soured. She was shocked and upset. But really God is a miracle worker." We believe supporters can now see how our people perceive God's miracle. Thank you for sharing this joy of caring with us through the touching service rendered to this youngster. This leg has a new message it is communicating to the community and it reflects the love shared. Shadrak Mutebi in his conclusive remarks with the social worker said, "With a lot of happiness, I thank God who enabled my sponsors to show me the heart of God, love, and kindness. I seek God in prayer to consider my sponsors needs too."

Thank you all because, indeed your prayers worked right from the day this young boy went through left leg amputation and all healing to the final stage of receiving his artificial limb. God bless you all.

New Reach USA Team

We would like to introduce the new team working to process your donations and questions in accordance with the US non profit laws. Ken Young (far right), who is a CPA for a large non profit, had a meaningful visit with Pastor Fred in Uganda. His admiration for Fred and the REACH ministry (which is shared by the whole team) lead him to graciously offer his expertise to its administration. Many thanks also to the Upper Room Church in Auburn CA who have kindly taken us under their 501(c)3 wing. It should be stated that we, as a 5 person team, are humbled by the service Pastor Rodney George (just one person replaced by 5) has rendered to this ministry for many years. His sacrifice has benefitted so many children and families in Uganda. Upon his shoulders we will carry on. ....Reminder to Sponsors on Bill Pay to please update your bank to new address below.
