The Children's Voice

August 2017

Famine Relief from REACH Sponsors comes to Nabitula, a Hard Hit Village.

We greet you all in Jesus' name; we wish to extend our sincere thanks for the food donation shared to the people in Omega Christian Prayer Centre – Nabitula, where Pastor Moses Aliwuya, UP/006 is ministering. This was edifying to the people who underwent untimely season of drought. Thank you for sharing the joy of caring for others with us here

The team took the food donation to the people at Nabitula village, I wished to personally deliver the food donation but I could not make it due to unavoidable circumstances. Early that morning, I prayed for the team asking God to continuously bless the hearts of the giver and the receiver.

After the prayer, we started loading the truck with the Maize flour and the journey started. Lucky enough the team reached Nabitula village successfully at exactly noon when a big number of people had already gathered with a lot of expectations. The villagers received them with praising songs and a lot of cheering!!

The People thanked God for the brotherhood of love and concern exercised by the sponsors, thanked sponsors for their generosity and sacrifice, and also wished the donors great mercies from the Almighty God.'

The gathered included the village local leaders, church members, widows, teens and elderly men and women. The number of people was overwhelming but God made it possible for all to go home happy with food. We thank all donors for answering the call, to help in the time of great need in the life of students at Omega school and community members at Nabitula village.

May the Almighty God bless you all abundantly.
