The Children's Voice

2025

Dear beloved friends,

Greetings to you and trusting that all is well with you. For us here we are doing well and Omega school is running very fine. As I mentioned last time that food prices have gone up, the situation is just worsening but we are still safe. Thank you for the support given to allow us to stand in such hard times. We are also very grateful for the funds that came in last month for the new desks. We shall be able to get 37 desks with these funds that have come in so far. A big thank you to you all.

season. Please pray for not just enough but consistent rainfall, and for a good harvest. This helps to provide the porridge meal all children receive daily.

A Pressing Need

As the years have passed by, our desks have gotten old and weak. And, there are not enough for all the students. Each desk sits three students at a cost of $25. In the first phase we need 100 desks. Please pray for us for the Lord's provision. (Reach USA note: If you feel so led, mark a donation of any size "For Desks").

The Omega School Cornfield

Did you know that Omega School has it's own field. The corn pictured above is from the last growing season. Uganda was called the "Pearl of Africa" by the British because it is beautiful but it also has three growing seasons. The seasonal growing is very dependant upon rainfall. Crops might get a good amount of rain, but it can still be affected if the rains start late or end early. The last season which ended in December did not get consistent rainfall so this was a struggling crop. March was the start of the new

The Joy of a Bicycle My name is Adramu Shamiru. I am the father of Hatim Munyoto. I am overwhelmed with joy today as I was called to the office with news of a new bicycle for Hatim. Our family is having eight people and out of these, six are our children. All are happy for Hatim. I thank the sponsors of my child Munyoto Hatim, for loving him, and for the great support of educating him. This bicycle will help at home with domestic work like fetching water, garden work and means of transport. May the Almighty God reward you abundantly. Thank you.

Gifts received by April 16th allow for a timely transfer of funds to Uganda.
