Another Reach Success Story:

Let me take this opportunity to thank you for your teamwork in enabling orphans and needy children to get access to quality education. I hope you enjoyed your Easter Week.

I am overjoyed to share with you: Gift Nalunga, an eighteen (18) year old girl. Currently, Gift's hands are enjoying training in tailoring skills. She joined Rescue African Children suburbs of Buwenge. She has struggled to raise these children with the help of Rescue African Children (REACH). Watching this young girl grow with a hope and future, it is our success story.

This year, she decided to join a nearby tailoring workshop to attain sewing skills. And indeed, according to her facial expression and her own words she is enjoying it. Our Social Worker made a visit to her tailoring class. Gift shared her joy and love for what she is pursuing as a livelihood. Our Social Worker asked her how she feels about it all and she responded, "I feel grateful and happy for the love and great support received from my sponsors through REACH. I am enjoying my hands on skills and I'm sure it will help me and my family. I believe after fully attaining my tailoring skills, I will be in a position to start my own small shop and help my aging mother and community." She ended her word expression with a prayer request. She asks for sponsors to keep praying for God to open doors to attain capital and buy her own sewing machine, sewing materials and some funds to rent a room where she can make her clothes and sell. Looking straight into her face, we see a future tailor with a growing shop of hand made clothes. Her big smile tells us. Please keep on praying for her so that God opens up doors and provision.

God bless you all...Fred Tumwebaze
