Dear Brethren,

I am called Pastor Martine Mwesigwa, who is making 49 years in the month of October this year 2024, I am married to Peace Namulondo and God has blessed us with five children, three (3) handsome boys and two (2) beautiful girls. I am ministering in the country side Church called Omega Christian Prayer centre-Magogo, under the leadership of Bishop Fred Tumwebaze. God has been with us since its establishment and it is now twelve years in existence, it was established in 2013 and we have witnessed many souls joining the body of Christ. With God's mercy the struggle continues.

We humbly thank the Almighty God for our overseas brethren who stand with us in season and out of season through our Bishop Fred Tumwebaze, may the Almighty God reward you according to your deep desires.

This year 2024, our growing congregation of fifty eight (58) adults, excluding children is deeply seeking God's provision for a Church building and Bibles for our Church members and some new members who will be joining us as we evangelize in the community. We believe before the end of this year God will answer our prayers. We kindly request you all to stand with us in prayer as we seek God's answer.

Allow me end here wishing you all a beautiful and fruitful year 2024. God bless you all.

Gifts received by February 16th allow for a timely transfer of funds to Uganda.

Seeing the End of Year Statements is so humbling for all of us. We are always moved by the generosity of our sponsors. You have made Christmas & Birthday parties amazing! And with the help of our great God and his work through you, Omega School has weathered the challenges of lock downs, food deprivations, inflation, and much more in the past few years. Audits started. Just to re-emphasize: All funds go to Omega School to care for ALL the children there unless they are designated somewhere else. If a child does not return to school, his funds stay at Omega to feed, teach, and care for all kids, sponsored or not sponsored. Thank you all!!!
